

Who we are:

FourLeaf Federal Credit Union is the 16th largest credit union in the United States and the largest in the Northeast.<sup>[1]</sup> Our Bank@Work program partners with employers to help their employees achieve financial wellness through our products and services. Our team is dedicated to your staff's financial needs, along with helping you build a financially educated employee base. By promoting financial well-being, you can help relieve financial stresses, increase retention, enhance workplace performance, and show that you, as an employer, care about their financial health.

What we provide:

Financial coaching	Financial seminars	Courtesy services	Virtual branch	Incentives
One-on-one financial wellness check-ins with our certified financial counselors.	A full range of in person and virtual seminars on topics including the basics of personal finance, credit building, and identity theft.	A dedicated operations team and phone line, offering a personalized experience for all your employees' banking needs.	FourLeaf relationship managers ready to assist with your banking needs, without having to leave the office.	Exclusive access to special discounts and promotions. Ask us about our direct deposit incentive!

Products we're known for:

Free Checking

Mortgages & Home Equity Line of Credit

High-Yield Savings Options

Our partners:

To learn more about Bank@Work:

- Scan the code or visit fourleaffcu.com/bankatwork
- Email us at newrelationships@fourleaffcu.com

[1] Callahan Associates, based on total assets. Data as of December 2024.

To obtain access to the advertised financial products and services offered by FourLeaf, membership is required, which is subject to approval and requires opening and maintaining a $5 Savings Account.